BIBLE WEEKEND WITH KEITH WARRINGTON SAT 24 & SUN 25 NOVEMBER

Keith has spent over thirty years engaged in church planting, pastoral ministry and mainly teaching New Testament Studies at Elim's Regents Theological College and beyond. He has written ten books, many articles and taught in many churches, Colleges and Universities in the UK and abroad. His fundamental mission in life is based on the belief that the Bible is God's word to us and, as such, is the most powerful catalyst to encourage spiritual growth, closeness to God and effective mission. This belief has resulted in a desire to enable believers to engage with the Bible so as to benefit from its unique revelation of God – Father, Son and Spirit - and to discover how it can make a difference to all believers in their walk with God and their mission in the world.

KEEP SATURDAY 24 & SUNDAY 25 NOVEMBER FREE IN YOUR DIARY!

A DETAILED ITINERARY FOR SATURDAY WILL BE CIRCULATED SOON.

Sunday Morning will be a United Group Service at Rayleigh Elim.

Sunday Evening will be at Ashingdon Elim.

THE PROMISE OF HOPE

Faith shows the reality of what we hope for; it is the evidence of things we cannot see. (Hebrews 11:1)

Our faith will never exceed our level of hope, the very substance of our faith. Faith is our ability to realize in our experience the things we hope for. You might say that faith gives us real eyes to realize and lay hold of what we are hoping for.

We will never develop our faith beyond our ability to have the true biblical kind of hope, the confident expectation of good that God wants us to have. Hope is essential for experiencing revival in our nation, for changing our culture, and for the transformation of our society.

True hope does not disappoint because the love of God poured out in our hearts enables us to sustain our faith until His promise is fulfilled. The Apostle Paul said, "this hope will not lead to disappointment. For we know how dearly God loves us, because He has given us the Holy Spirit to fill our hearts with His love" (Romans 5:5).

We must remember the father of our faith, Abraham. Like father like son, we must maintain our hope until the fulfilment of the promise, no matter how impossible it may look, feel, seem, or be.

So the promise is received by faith. It is given as a free gift. And we are all certain to receive it, whether or not we live according to the law of Moses, if we have faith like Abraham's. For Abraham is the father of all who believe. (Romans 4:16).

Faith is the substance of our hope. Believe in the goodness of God He will fulfil His promises.
